1985 INDEX

NEW ENGLAND ECONOMIC INDICATORS

ARTICLES

January	New England is 13th Largest but Connecticut Ranks No. One
February	Summary of Recovery Comparisons
May	New England Gross Product
June	Plant Shutdowns and Job Displacements: How Do New England Workers Fare?

SPECIAL FEATURES

A. Historical Data Series

March	Real Estate Loans—Mutual Savings Banks Net Deposit Flow at a Sample of Mutual Savings Banks
April	Total Housing Permits Authorized Single Unit Housing Permits Authorized
June	Motor Gasoline Sales Electric Energy Sales Residential Commercial and Industrial Retail Sales Consumer Prices
July	Value of Total Construction Contracts Value of Nonbuilding Construction Contracts Value of Nonresidential Building Construction Contracts
August	Value of Residential Building Construction Contracts
October	Total Nonagricultural Employment Total Manufacturing Employment Total Nonmanufacturing Employment
November	Durable Goods Employment Nondurable Goods Employment
December	Average Weekly Hours of Manufacturing Production Workers Average Hourly Earnings of Manufacturing Production Workers

	B. Other Features
Monthly	New England Economic Summary New England Economic Watch
Quarterly	Special Indicators Charts (February, May, August, November)
January
February	Comparison: 1975–77 and 1983–85 Recoveries
March	Statement of Ownership, Management and Circulation
September	Economic Indicators Definitions and Sources
December	1985 Index